

In 1 Archb. Crim. Pr. & Pl. 583 it is stated that the prosecutor is not bound to call all the witnesses on the back of the bill, but he must have them in Court, in order that the prisoner may examine any of them whose evidence he may require; but if the prisoner calls them he makes them his own witnesses, and R. v. Woodhead, 2 Car. & K. 520, is referred to, in which the rule was so laid down lately by the Judges. It is believed, however, that the rule here is otherwise, at least in capital cases.
